Collect for 26th June 2022:

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Readings for 26th June 2022:

Galatians 5.1, 13-25

5¹For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

1³ For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters;^{} only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence,^{} but through love become slaves to one another. 1⁴For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’ 1⁵If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

1⁶ Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh.

1⁷For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. 1⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. 1⁹Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, 2⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, 2¹envy,^{*} drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

2² By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, 2³gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. 2⁴And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

2⁵If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Luke 9.51-end

5¹ When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. 5²And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; 5³but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. 5⁴When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, ‘Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?’^{} 5⁵But he turned and rebuked them. 5⁶Then^{} they went on to another village.

⁵⁷ As they were going along the road, someone said to him, ‘I will follow you wherever you go.’ ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, ‘Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.’ ⁵⁹To another he said, ‘Follow me.’ But he said, ‘Lord, first let me go and bury my father.’ ⁶⁰But Jesus^{*} said to him, ‘Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.’ ⁶¹Another said, ‘I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.’ ⁶²Jesus said to him, ‘No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.’

Post Communion Prayer:

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven,
and we share in the eternal banquet
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Edmund Sharpe:

Edmund Sharpe is remembered in Lancaster not only for designing St Paul's Church here in Scotforth. Every year we mark World Water Day and so let us remember the efforts of Edmund Sharpe in clearing up the mill race – and Lancaster's – water supply.

Edmund Sharpe (1809 – 1877) was an architect, business owner and campaigner for sanitation reform.

As a town councillor, Sharpe accompanied Richard Owen on his 1844 inspection of Lancaster's sanitation problems, which particularly singled out the mill race area. Here, overcrowded worker housing suffered from open sewers, shared privies and overflowing cess pits which frequently flooded cellar dwellings. Most people relied on wells for their drinking water, and this was often polluted, causing people to get ill. Typhus was rife, and in 1848 Lancaster experienced a cholera pandemic.

Sharpe successfully lobbied Parliament for a further inspection, leading to an Act of Parliament allowing for 'a complete and constant supply of pure and soft water, and a... thorough system of drainage'. This resulted in a new water and sewerage system for the town.

Sharpe also owned the Phoenix Foundry in Phoenix Street, and the new water pipes bought for the city in 1853 were manufactured in Sharpe's foundry.
