Message from Reverend Rebecca:

Giving Sunday

'Yours, O Lord, are the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is yours; yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as head above all[...] For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.' (1 Chronicles 10. 11, 14b)

I believe that Christian giving should be understood as gift-giving, modelled after the generous gifts of love, grace, and salvation we receive from God. Generosity is a foundation of Christian living because God calls us to be generous with our talents, time, and our money.

This Lent we are invited to examine how we treat our resources, whether we see them as our own possessions to do with what we will, or whether we share what we have with others because of our faith. When we give generously, we profess our belief that everything in heaven and earth belongs to God as quoted in 1 Chronicles.

Over the next few weeks, we will be launching a Regular Giving Campaign, asking people to support financially the ministry and mission of St Paul's Church in Scotforth and Hala. Regular, committed giving allows us to budget and plan for the good work that God is doing in our parish.

In giving to St Paul's, we share in the responsibility of being the living Body of Christ in our parish. Committed, generous giving enables us all to share the love of God through our buildings, beautiful grounds, worship, and acts of service.

This year we face a substantial financial deficit compounded by the current economic climate and uncertainty about the future. Unfortunately, this situation cannot go on indefinitely and requires a time of serious consideration, prayer and giving from all of us.

I am asking everyone who views St Paul's as 'their' church to spend time in prayer and then to give generously to the work of the church.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Finance Group, comprised of Mervyn Bonnett, Brian Threlfall, Jayne Weatherill, Arton Medd, Jennifer Couchman and Jon Humfrey, who took a good hard look at our dwindling church finances and came up with an ambitious plan to lead us into financial stability.

This is a critical time for us as a parish as we seek to move forward in these matters, being faithful to what God has entrusted to us and working together to maintain a Christian presence in our communities now and in the future.

You may notice that we have turned off the spotlights illuminating our church during Lent. What happens if we are no longer able to sustain our ministry and be a beacon of God's love in our parish? What would happen if we could not serve our local community? Would we be missed?

Everyone is invited to come to church for Giving Sunday when we will give thanks for past giving and pray for God's further provision through you. It will also be an opportunity for you to meet our new Assistant Priest, Rev Catherine, and to stay for refreshments after the 9.45am service at Scotforth and 11.15am service at Hala.

Yours in Christ,
Reverend Rebecca

Collect for 5th March 2023:

Prayer: O Lord Jesus Christ, you taught us that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Pour into our hearts the spirit of your own abundant generosity, that we may be glad to share with others what we ourselves have so richly received to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Readings for 5th March 2023:

1 Chronicles 29.10-19

<sup>10</sup> Then David blessed the Lord in the presence of all the assembly; David said: 'Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our ancestor Israel, for ever and ever. <sup>11</sup>Yours, O Lord, are the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is yours; yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as head above all. <sup>12</sup>Riches and honour come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might; and it is in your hand to make great and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup>And now, our God, we give thanks to you and praise your glorious name.

<sup>14</sup> 'But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to make this freewill-offering? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. <sup>15</sup>For we are aliens and transients before you, as were all our ancestors; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope. <sup>16</sup>O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own. <sup>17</sup>I know, my God, that you search the heart, and take pleasure in uprightness; in the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you. <sup>18</sup>O Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep for ever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of your people, and direct their hearts towards you. <sup>19</sup>Grant to my son Solomon that with single mind he may keep your commandments, your decrees, and your statutes, performing all of them, and that he may build the temple for which I have made provision.'

Luke 14.27-33

<sup>27</sup>Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup>For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup>Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, <sup>30</sup>saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.”<sup>31</sup>Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. <sup>33</sup>So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Post Communion Prayer for 5th March 2023

Almighty God,
you see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves:
keep us both outwardly in our bodies,
and inwardly in our souls;
that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to
the body,
and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lent reading: how is it going?

To accompany the booklet, 'That you may know the truth', I thought I'd presume to write a regular piece each week in Lent and ask, 'how is it going?'

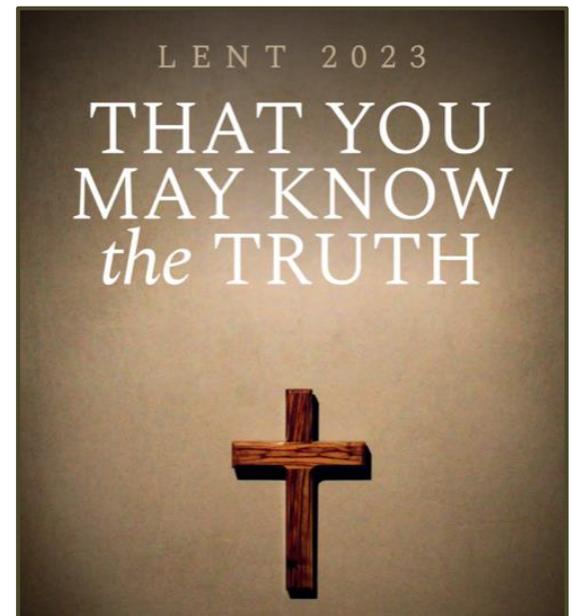

Lots of you have accepted the invitation to take the free resource, and read a portion of Luke's Gospel and a reflection each day for 6 weeks. Great!

We are journeying with Jesus, and have begun in the first week with the events around his birth. We have been reading about the amazing encounters ordinary people had with God. Simeon, Zechariah, Elizabeth, Mary, Joseph, Anna, John etc. They had life changing experiences, often dramatic, unexpected, and in unusual places. Amazing. So far it has all been preparation for Jesus and his public ministry, so all his teaching and miracles are yet to come. Certainly, there is a lot to read and take in. How has it been for you? What have you learnt? Have you seen something fresh? If you have not got your copy of the booklet, there are still spares at the back of St Paul's and Hala - you don't have to start from the beginning.

The parish groups have begun, and there is an open invitation each week for anyone to attend - come on the days you can manage. Finally, the diocese has a PDF version and daily emails if you prefer to read online - search 'Diocese of Blackburn/Seasonal Resources' to find out more.

May you have your own encounter with God as you read the Gospel of Luke, and the daily reflections in the book.

This week I was visiting a catholic church near Lancaster to look at their crocus and snowdrop display when I came across this interesting notice in the porch:

“Before Mass talk to God
During Mass listen to God
After Mass talk to other people”

Green Bins and news from the Crocus Memorial Garden:

If you appreciate all the hard work the gardening team do to keep on top of the gardens and regret that you aren't able to help. Here is your chance. Once again it is time to pay the council £41 (over £200 for 5) to have a green bin emptied. On average we can fill 4 bins a session so they are vital to our work. A donation of any amount would be much appreciated so that we can continue to keep on top of the gardening. I hasten to add that we do have 2 compost heaps as well.

Don't forget to keep an eye out for our crocus memorial garden, they should be coming into flower in the next few weeks. This year we planted another 1000 bulbs!

Volunteers Needed!

Have you got a couple of hours to spare on a Friday to go on our rota?

We need drivers, meet and greet, setting up help, clearing away help.

St Paul's, Hala Centre - Hala Square, Lancaster, LA1 4RW

Friday's - times vary according to volunteer role

St Paul's Hala Pantry is a food club which runs every Friday at St Paul's Hala. It sources food that would otherwise have gone to landfill. Members of Hala Pantry can help reduce food waste whilst topping up their weekly shop.
