'Volunteering is doing more than you have to because you want to, in a cause you consider good.'
Ivan Scheier

'Volunteering brings joy, purpose and belonging..... a gift that we give that goes on giving back to us.'
Archbishop Justin Welby

St Paul's Church, Scotforth is like every Church of England church in that it is indebted to the many volunteers who contribute their time, skills and enthusiasm to maintaining and enhancing our buildings and supporting our community's daily life, worship, welcome, and outreach to visitors.

It may seem like there is always an appeal for some role or other but we really do need everyone to consider if they can contribute to the smooth running of the parish. The time that you could give, whether it be for 10 minutes weekly or an hour weekly would be greatly valued. Do you have skills in your work life that are transferable to parish life? All the vacant roles we have all have different time commitments, all need different skills and knowledge, training and support is available and every single one is vital in the bigger picture of our parish.

No contribution is ever too small or too insignificant – it is always welcomed and gratefully received.

If as you are looking through this booklet you feel drawn to one of the roles, and there is one paid role, then please do talk to Jayne or Keith our Churchwardens. Please prayerfully consider if you can contribute to your church, your parish and your community.

Excerpt from Septuagesima by John Betjeman:

*Let's praise the man who goes to light
The church stove on an icy night.
Let's praise that hard-worked he or she
The Treasurer of the P.C.C.
Let's praise the cleaner of the aisles,
The nave and candlesticks and tiles.
Let's praise the organist who tries
To make the choir increase in size,
Or if that simply cannot be,
Just to improve its quality.
Let's praise the ringers in the tower
Who come to ring in cold and shower.
But most of all let's praise the few
Who are seen in their accustomed pew
Throughout the year, whate'er the weather,
That they may worship God together.
These, like a fire of glowing coals,
Strike warmth into each other's souls,
And though they be but two or three
They keep the church for you and me.*
